NAIOP At The National Level

The National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP), is a dynamic network of 55 chapters representing more than 16,500+ real estate members across the United States and Canada. For 41 years, NAIOP has represented the interests of developers, owners, investors, managers, brokers, attorneys, architects, lenders, contractors and public officials in protecting and shaping the commercial real estate industry.

NAIOP At The Chapter Level

Founded in 1989, the NAIOP San Francisco Bay Area chapter encompasses members from San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, San Mateo, Marin and Sonoma Counties. Of these members, there is a strong representation of owner/developers and a wide array of service providers who cover the spectrum of real estate issues.

The Chapter's mission is to support the Bay Area commercial real estate industry by proactively influencing legislative policy, providing superior educational events and fostering networking opportunities.

NAIOP At The Member Level

As a NAIOP member, you become part of an influential constituency of industry leaders and politically involved business professionals at the national, state and local level. NAIOP provides opportunities for you to develop new business relationships, keep current on the latest issues and trends in the industry, and share experiences with colleagues who are among the industry's top professionals.
